BREED THEATER.
High Class Moving Pictures and Illustrated Songs.

A second stormy evening served to attract the size of the audience at the Breed theater last evening. There was an abundance of enthusiasm, especially in the comedy and drama pictures, a burst of applause following each and every climax, and although the pictures were in making these very successful pictures are great favorites and the regular attendants can be heard identifying them whenever they appear in a new role.

The great southern pictures have been a revelation to the Norwich people and of great educational value. The very promising bill for Thursday includes the great war picture, "Stirling Days" in Old Virginia, and is one of the best pictures in this particular field, as is the dramatic picture, "The Castaways," and the Heroin of the Purple, while the educational film is entitled "Around Brussels" in Ten Minutes and cannot be equalled for diversity of scenery.

The comedy pictures are called "The Troubled Artist," a Red Hot, Remedy and The Persevering Insurance Agent.
Madam Morelle will sing the beautiful homo ballad, When the Evening Breeze is Singing Home Sweet Home.

Special Attraction at the Roderick.
For the remainder of this week, commencing today (Thursday), the attraction at the Roderick will be The Lioness Play, or The Life of Christ. This production is beautifully colored, in five different parts, namely, The Childhood of Christ, His Boyhood, His Life, While on Earth, His Crucifixion and last of all His Glorious Ascension into Heaven. No doubt everyone who can will take advantage of this great picture of the life of the Saviour, as no doubt it will be the best of its kind at the smallest price ever offered before the public. In addition to the picture, Mr. O'Neil will sing that song that never will grow old, The Holy Child, and at the close of this song have been made specially for this occasion and are beautifully colored. As the attendance will be a doubt to be the largest we have ever had, the management requests of all ladies who can attend in the afternoon, therefore assuring them seats. Admission will be, as usual, five cents.

Quinebaug Pomona Grange.
The meeting of Quinebaug Pomona Grange, No. 2, P. of H. with Killington range at Danvers Saturday night.
The morning session will open at 10.30 in the fifth degree. For this session the chief business will be the installing of the Pomona officers for the year 1939 and this installation will be in charge of Worthy Master Overseer George Peck, assisted by Mrs. Peck. Installation will begin at 11.15 o'clock.

The afternoon programme will be as follows:
Music.
By the grange.
Address, B. A. Peck, overseer Connecticut State grange.
Vocal solo,
Miss Burbank of Brooklyn grange.
A Talk Upon Domestic Science, Mrs. Wheeler.
Piano solo,
Miss Allen of Brooklyn grange.
Recitation,
Bro. Frank Bennett of Killington grange.
Lecture, Early Days in the Colonies.
Prof. Henry Rutledge Monmouth of the Connecticut Agricultural college.
Vocal solo,
Dr. Kingsbury of Killington grange.
Discussions and Suggestions.
The grange will close in form.

Flozalez Quartette.
The second number of the series of concerts arranged this season for Slater Memorial Hall will take place Wednesday evening, March 2d, when the world-famous Flozalez quartette will make their own appearance before a Norwich audience.

The Flozalez quartette is recognized today as one of the most remarkable chamber music organizations in the world. Few string quar-tettes have attained such perfection of ensemble, finish of technique, hearty of tone, rhythmic precision or the quality of expression. Though its members are of three different nationalities, all are of the Latin race, three have studied under the same master, Cesar Thomson. By common heritage and special training, therefore, they are admirably equipped for ensemble work.

The Flozalez quartette was founded in 1903 by Mr. E. J. de Coppet, the owner of a beautiful Swiss residence, "Flozalez Villa," on Lake Geneva.
From this villa the quartette took its name, and the name of the sources given tours of Switzerland, Germany and Holland were undertaken with marked success. Last season the Flozalez made their first American tour and everywhere aroused the great enthusiasm.

The quartette is now an independent body, devoting itself exclusively to a public career. Its artistic purpose—to give chamber music of the very highest order—remains unchanged, as does also its personnel, which includes: A. Betti, first violin; A. Poschon, second violin; Tito Ara, viola, and Iwan d'Archembaud, cello.

The singleness of purpose and lofty artistic aim of these four admirable musicians are revealed by a mutual agreement not to teach, to play in orchestra, or to do any ensemble work outside of their own organization. The quartette has the distinction therefore of being the only string quartette in the world giving its exclusive attention to the year around to the cultivation of chamber music.

Tickets for this concert are now on sale at the store of George A. Davis.
Admission, including reserved seats, $1. Early selection of seats is advisable, as the demand promises to be very brisk.

Niantic, Niantic Lodge, No. 17, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, celebrates its thirty-first anniversary at

LOVING CUP
Presented Captain William C. Cheney by South Manchester Fire Company.

Captain William C. Cheney, who has been general foreman of Hose and Ladder company No. 4 of the South Manchester fire department since the company was organized, and previous to the organization of the fire department was head of the volunteer company that made its headquarters on School street, was Saturday night given a loving cup by the members of the company. A member of the company, he having resigned as general foreman of the company at a meeting held early in the month. Lieut.
Colonel John Hickey, a member of the company, and also first assistant chief of the South Manchester fire department, presented the loving cup.

The cup is of silver, standing ten inches high, with gold lining. It bears the inscription:
Presented to
Our Retiring Foreman,

DON'T WORRY;
It Makes Wrinkles.
Worry over ill-health does your health no good, and only causes wrinkles, that make you look older than you are.

If you are sick, don't worry, but go about it to make yourself well. To do this we repeat the words of thousands of other former sufferers from womanly ills, similar to yours, when we say, Take Viburn-O.

It is a wonderful female remedy, as you will admit if you try it.
